RELEASE OF CAPTIVES OF CHINESE EXPECTED SOON

Negotiations for Ransoming of Foreigners Is Progressing; Washington Anxious

BY ROY BENNETT
[BY CABLE-EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]
[Copyright, 1934, by the Chicago Tribune.]

SHANGHAI, May 10.—The situation is much more hopeful as a result of favorable reports relative to negotiations for ransoming of the foreign captives taken in a raid on the Peking Express at Linching, Shantung, last Saturday by bandits and the Chinese government's promise to pay the ransom.

J. B. Powell, Shanghai correspondent for the Chicago Tribune, one of the American captives, has written two letters for the bandits in connection with the negotiations and this is accepted as indicative of his welfare.

RELEASE CONDITIONAL
The American consular at Tientsin received a letter from Powell on May 7, which he wrote at the dictation of the bandit chief, saying that the foreigners would be released providing the troops were withdrawn.

The bandit who was detailed to escort Miss Aldrich to the railway evidently feared punishment so he refused to leave her. Miss Aldrich arrived at Tientsin with a real live hand as a souvenir. "Well treated, she was a good time. Expect release soon," reads a telegram received from H. Gensburger who is within two miles of the captives, one of whom is his son. Gensburger got into communication with the bandits who assured him that at present they were being well treated.

Reports that Major Finner and Allen of the United States Army have been released have not been confirmed.

MINISTER SPEARS
"At no time has the use of American troops been considered in connection with the liberation of the foreign captives."

This was the first statement for publication made by Dr. Jacob Gould Schurman, United States Minister of China, since the whole-sale kidnapping of foreigners.

Dr. Schurman arrived at Shanghai tonight. The Chinese government, the Inspector-general of Shantung and Chihli provinces, the civil and military governors of Shantung and the Governor of Kiangsu are in my opinion, doing their utmost to effect the liberation of the foreigners and to deliver them safely.

"I imagine that the Chinese authorities at the outset contemplated a policy of force but when representatives of the Asia Development Company began to report that a compromise on the part of the government with the bandits was in their opinion necessary to save the lives of the foreigners and when there was no doubt but what the Chinese government would receive the same reports from other sources, it became obvious that a policy of force alone would lead to fatal results for the foreigners."

HOPEFUL FOR RELEASE
"Since that time there is every reason to believe that the Chinese have been paved for negotiations and that the Chinese authorities are now commencing to pay ransom to the bandits on the basis of the ransom."

Dr. Schurman's statement was in his opinion necessary to give the lives of the foreigners and when there was no doubt but what the Chinese government would receive the same reports from other sources, it became obvious that a policy of force alone would lead to fatal results for the foreigners."

MERCURY IS AWAY DOWN IN NEW YORK

Drop to 38 Degrees Equals May 10 Record; Baseball Games Called Off

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]
NEW YORK, May 10.—Today was as cold in New York as any May 10 in local history. The thermometer showed a minimum of 38 deg. Had it not been for the fact that May 10, 1930, also had a mark of 38 deg. every record would have been shattered. As the record stands it is a tie.

A brief snow and hailstorm passed over part of the city about 10:30 o'clock this morning. In the vicinity of the Hotel Theresa at One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street dark clouds gathered and hail beat on the windows. In a few minutes the sky cleared again.

At the Polo Grounds a few officials emerged from the shelter of a red-hot stove long enough to announce that the game between the Giants and Chicago had been postponed. The Brooklyn-Pittsburgh contest over at Ebbets Field also was postponed. No manager would risk sending out his expensive players of baseball mechanism in the snow.

The New York was not as badly off as other places. Up at Winsted, Ct., where various townsfolk are taking place, the three-legged chickens and the five-eared cats and the horses with two tails were wading through a small snowstorm. The temperature there was about 32 deg.

Springfield, Mass., reported a snow flurry shortly before noon. In Western Ontario, according to dispatches from the East, the temperature dropped to 16 deg. Light snow was reported from Eastern Pennsylvania and Northern New Jersey. Buffalo reported a temperature of 20 deg. and Philadelphia reported a snow flurry.

Officials said that there had been no assurances that the captives would be released immediately, but that everything that had been received here of an official nature indicated that the Chinese government would soon release the captives.

While first concern of this government is for the safety of the captives, the American citizens considerable thought is being given to the effect of the outrage upon Chinese relations with the family of nations.

Officials stated that it might result in an improvement of relations if the Chinese government, by securing the release of the prisoners and taking prompt measures to punish the criminals and steps to prevent the recurrence of such an outrage.

Developments that the government officials have no hesitancy in saying that the diplomatic situation is not serious. China. Everything that could possibly be done for China to put it on a footing of equality with the United States was done at the Washington conference in the nine-power treaty. That treaty still is unratified by France. It has been of no avail, officials here cannot see what further parleys or what avail they may have.

China's troubles would be, or helping China through financial aid and a revival of the consortium idea may develop.

The State Department was advised today by Minister Schurman that he purposely was avoiding any suggestion that the Chinese government was employing the captives. What this government would do to release the Americans and it does not think it wise at this time to suggest how it should be done.

If China fails to make good, then some other demands or suggestions will be made. There is an emphatic denial in official quarters of the report cable from Peking that the United States had offered to send its military forces in China to co-operate with Chinese soldiers in going after the bandits.

LUNACY EXPERT GIVES TALK TO LEGISLATORS
PROPOSED ACTS PRINCIPLES DANGEROUS, HE TELLS COMMITTEES

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]
SACRAMENTO, May 10.—John Armstrong Chaloner, of New York, well-known for his interest in laws relating to lunacy, visited Sacramento today and talked with members of the Senate and Assembly committees which had considered a bill modifying the insanity commitment laws of California.

The bill had been tabled, but Mr. Chaloner said he considered the principles involved so dangerous that he wished to call attention to the bill so that it would not reappear with hope of success at a later session.

The bill that attracted his attention was offered by Mrs. Sawyer at the request of physicians, and would, if adopted, have done away with personal notice and application for insanity complaint, which now has to be served on the defendant.

Mr. Chaloner drew attention to the fact that the bill would have done away with the present requirement for the defendant's presence at the hearing before the court. Pleads for Party Solidarity in Ohio Address

Reduction in Federal Taxes Believed Near

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]
MANFIELD (O.) May 10.—Admission that there is a division in Republican party ranks was made by Postmaster-General Harry S. New in an address here tonight in which he pleaded for party solidarity against "blocs, individuals with pet theories and fragmentary notions," and asserted that as a result of accomplishments of the Harding administration "the unexpected may happen in the form of an early reduction of Federal taxation."

"I freely admit the division in the Republican ranks, but the estate of our Democratic adversaries is no better," Mr. New said. "The trouble from which both parties suffer today is lack of cohesion."

The Postmaster-General was the principal speaker at the centennial celebration of the birth of John Sherman, Manfield's most noted citizen, and represented President Harding at the affair. Describing the administration's part in bringing better times, Mr. New said:

"I happen to know that it is the belief of the administration—certainly it is the hope—that the Federal Government will permit the unexpected to happen in the form of an early reduction of Federal taxation. If our customs receipts continue at anything like the present rate and if better business conditions prevail, it is not unlikely that the reduction will be made."

Mr. New said that the administration was in a position to make such a reduction. He said that the administration was in a position to make such a reduction.

Oil and Other Cargoes Show Enormous Increase

Statements Based on Figures Compiled Officially

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)
WASHINGTON, May 10.—Los Angeles leads all ports of the United States in volume of tonnage in the intercoastal shipping business through the Panama Canal. New York is in second place and San Francisco is third. Los Angeles' tonnage for the first quarter of 1923 exceeded all other Pacific Coast centers combined and totaled more than half of all intercoastal business of all United States ports combined.

Los Angeles combined in and out tonnage for the quarter was 1,418,548 tons. All Puget Sound points, Columbia River points and

AMERICA TO GET COPY

(BY WIRELESS—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

LONDON, May 10.—The British note to Germany is now nearly complete, but is waiting for a final consultation and comparison with the Italian note before it is dispatched.

When it is finished it first will be sent to France and Belgium, and possibly to the United States, before it is dispatched to Berlin.

The entire tonnage of all San Francisco Bay ports, including Alameda, Oakland, and South San Francisco, aggregated but $68,572 tons, and the total in and out of coastal tonnage through the canal from the port of New York was only 1,155,792, or a quarter of a million tons less than the newest port on the Pacific and the biggest in the United States in the tonnage handled.

OIL HUGE ITEM

These figures are the official compilations made by the United States Shipping Board and have been carefully checked and rechecked. Of course, the greatest single item of tonnage from Los Angeles was oil, but the incoming tonnage was close to 300,000 tons, and shows the unheard-of and unparalleled development of the Los Angeles harbor in domestic water traffic to say nothing of the growth of this port in foreign trade.

R. T. Merrill, director of the bureau of research of the Shipping Board, issued the statement of the tremendous growth of intercoastal tonnage and the figures there given tell the story of Los Angeles' supremacy without exaggeration and without depreciation of the activities of other ports. The statement is as follows:

GENERAL CARGOES LARGE

The movement of cargo between the East and West coasts of the United States through the Panama Canal is steadily increasing. The results for the first three months of 1923 show an increase of approximately 80 per cent over the same months of 1922. Most of this increase is in bulk, but there is an increase of a quarter of a million tons in general cargoes as well.

The total movement for the last three months of 1922 was 1,155,792 tons eastbound and 1,155,792 tons westbound, or a total of 2,311,584 tons. For the first quarter of the present year 1,634,000 tons moved eastward, while 655,000 tons moved to the west coast; a total of 2,289,000 tons. Of this movement, 1,143,000 tons consisted of crude petroleum produced in the Southern California fields and moved from Los Angeles in tankers to ports on the Atlantic and Gulf coasts.

PETROLEUM INCREASE

This is an increase of 500,000 tons over the amount of oil moved during the last quarter in 1922. The total movement of petroleum cargo other than oil increased from 292,000 tons in the last three months of 1922 to 313,000 tons for the succeeding three months. In this intercoastal trade, which includes the foreign trade and the coastwise trade not passing through the canal, Los Angeles stands first with a total of over 1,400,000 tons, and New York second with 1,160,000 tons. San Francisco is in third place with 554,000 tons, and Baltimore follows closely with 338,000 tons. Other important ports in order of volume in the intercoastal trade are Philadelphia, Seattle and Portland, Ore.

DAMAGE SUIT AGAINST GOMPERS DISMISSED

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
WASHINGTON, May 10.—The $25,000 damage suit brought against Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and other labor organizations by P. J. Ryan, former editor of the Pittsburgh Courier, was dismissed today in District of Columbia Supreme Court.

Mr. Ryan, who was vice-president of the Harding Democratic Club here, charged the Federation head had ordered the local plate printer's union to oust him from membership after he had given out an interview asserting Mr. Gompers could not swing the labor vote to Cox in the 1920 campaign.

On the witness stand, Mr. Gompers denied he was engaged in partisan politics, asserting he had at various times opposed both Republican and Democratic candidates for office.

LIFE GUARDS APPROVED

The two guards are Ray Kegeria, winner of the back-stroke swimming match at the last Olympic games, and Leroy Messall, one of the stars of the water-polo team. They will patrol the beach as the Hermosa lina. The south beach is protected by life guards from the bath-house.

RECOVER BURNED BODIES

Death List in Texas Oil Disaster Stands at Sixteen; Flames Hamper Work of Rescue

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

CORPUS, (Tex.) May 10.—At least sixteen men lost their lives in the explosion at the J. K. Hughes development Company's number 1 well yesterday, a check-up revealed today. The bodies of thirteen of the victims, burned to a crisp, have been identified. The skeletons of three other victims are floating in the well.

Despite the feverish efforts to check the fire, it continues to rage. Flames are visible for fifty miles around and a heavy pall of smoke covers the sky for a distance of eleven miles. Work of assembling the seventeen bodies brought to the well before daylight is being hurried in the hope that the steam from the entire battery, when turned on the burning lake, will check the flames.

RESCUE CREWS HAMPERED

Women, their faces drawn and haggard, with crying children clinging to them, have assembled in groups about the pool of yellowish liquid fire in the hope of finding their husbands, fathers or relatives employed there. Emergency crews have been organized and are working desperately to recover the bodies and prevent further property loss. The work of the first-aid crews is hampered by the lack of roads to the well.

From accounts given of the blast by more than 500 people watching the work of the drilling crews, it is known that at least sixteen of the fifty-odd men were sucked in by the sheet of flame, and met death in the fire which followed the explosion. Some members of the two crews and connecting gang employed at the well at the time were hurled to the ground, where the flames overtook them. Others attempted to crawl away, but also died in the flames.

It has been impossible to determine accurately the number of workmen dead, missing and not accounted for. J. H. Hughes, head of the development company, stated that some of the crew which was relieving the day workers at the well had just come from Mexico a few hours before the blast. This crew and a roving band of gang were working near the well when the blast came, he said, and in the general confusion it has been im-

SALT LAKE CITY, May 10.—Argument of counsel for the defense at the preliminary hearing of Marjorie and John A. ## Action of the A.A.U. Seems to Give Everybody a Pain

NOBODY EMITS ANY APPLAUSE

Women Swimmers Annoyed and Admit It

Paddock's Case is Simply One Example

Experts Claim Announcement is Un-American

BY WILLIAM H. ROCAP,
Sports Editor "Public Ledger"
PHILADELPHIA (Pa.) May 10.
It is fully within the province of the Amateur Athletic Union and all other governing bodies of sports in this country to decide that there shall be no representation at the international games in France this year. These associations are in no financial condition to send a team this year and another next year to the Olympiad. Solons of sports realize that the United States is going to have its work cut out in 1936 to finish in front at the Olympic games. For that reason all efforts both financial and athletic, must be concentrated on the team of next year.

AN UN-AMERICAN SPIRIT
There is a tide of travel flowing toward Europe which is being daily strengthened by those who can afford the trip. American athletes, while not of the moneyed class, are as a rule thrifty and many can afford to pay their own expenses. Why should the Amateur Athletic Union or any other governing body of sports say, "You cannot go to Europe and exhibit your athletic prowess?" It is decidedly un-American and is being resented from coast to coast. Now the women swimmers have started a revolt. They have been refused a sanction to go abroad. They are all amateurs, have faithfully complied with the A.A.U. rules and now feel they are being discriminated against.

ACTION HAS BEEN HASTY
It would seem that the A.A.U. has been hasty in its action. Suppose the British association had told Oxford-Cambridge that the relay team must not go to Philadelphia to compete at the University of Pennsylvania's carnival for fear of lessening Britain's chances at the Olympic games next year? We would hardly label them as poor sportsmen. International athletic competition is bound to cement a close relationship between nations, and the A.A.U. should encourage it to the limit, especially when its treasury does not suffer.

SENTIMENT OF AN EXPERT
John C. Meyers, editor of Force, who has been an outstanding figure at the Olympic games for the last twenty years, writes us as follows:

"The Amateur Athletic Union's (A.A.U.) edict that American athletes must not go abroad this year to compete is evidently and unmistakably aimed at the big international athletic tournament in Gothenburg, Sweden, during June and July of this year. Is politics to determine the trend of the world's physical development and recreation competition between nations? Was Pope Pius correctly informed for the sake of world's peace, which he seriously advocates, when he praised the efforts of the International Olympic Committee as the most peace-promoting, cleanest moral and spiritual attempt yet made since the World War? The United States representatives at the Rome seemed to have forgotten that they represented all of the people of the United States; that American youths would joyfully meet the stamina of any athletes anywhere, from anywhere, and at any time, in peaceful, manly contests and friendly rivalry. The A. A. U. proclamation lacks true sportsmanship and is un-American."

SOME REMINISCENT HISTORY
"Well does the writer remember, from personal experience and observation, the Olympic contest at Athens, St. Louis, Stockholm, and, regrettably, those of Antwerp in 1920. At Antwerp the disgraceful and near-criminal treatment of our athletes should be compared with the perfect arrangements, the fine sportsmanship and utmost cordiality of the Swedish public and officials at Stockholm, and, since then, the splendid treatment our American soccer teams were accorded in that country. If these animosities and prejudices are continued and adhered to the Paris Olympiad is likely to be another Antwerp fiasco since, as it now appears, the Northern neutral countries—Sweden, Denmark, Norway, Holland and the Finnish countries—are to withdraw from the 1924 classics at Paris. Charles Paddock and Johnny Weissmuller, two of the greatest athletic stars in their respective abilities in the history of the world, have shown their upstanding American spirit and independence and fairness to say that they will compete abroad this year at Paris and Gothenburg, and, also likely, that the redoubtable Tommy Cahill—the master mind of American soccer, will head another all-American-born soccer team to tour Europe despite the threats of the A.A.U. to disqualify them. Let's have peace."

None of those nominated from Kentucky is expected to show up. Zev, a son of The Finn, made a great reputation last season and in his only outing this spring, was returned a winner. Some of the "wise ones" think he may go to the post in the Preakness Saturday the favorite. Martin-gale also is well favored, and George Thatcher has a good fol-

BLOCKING GROUND BALLS

How should grounders in the outfield be played?

Answered by
MAX CAREY
Outfielder and captain, Pittsburgh Pirates, greatest baserunner in the National League.

There are two ways of playing ground balls in the outfield. If the team in the field is several runs ahead, or there are men on bases that are not likely to score, the ball should be played safe-blocked.

However, if the score is close, or a tie with a man on second or third, the outfielder should come in fast and scoop the ball on the run and throw to whatever base the play calls for.

battle bravely and well to overcome this lead. The Englishman added Quintet's uphill struggle by getting rather badly off his own game on those deciding holes between the turn and the finish.

TOP CHILL

Rotan passed out of the tournament in the forenoon beaten 3 up and 2 to play by W. L. Hope of Turnbury. It was very cold working in the buthrooms whipping across the course and Rotan accustomed to the warmer temperature of Texas, shivered in his shoes as he walked to the first tee. He never mentioned the weather in explanation of his rather poor game, but anyone could see that the chilling blasts coming in from the sea had something to do with his slump in playing form.

Dr. Willing won his morning round against R. W. Trummack, but Roger Wethered, a popular hero in his home land, ousted the Oregon dentist before an immense gallery in the afternoon. Willing, who had been surprising everyone by the sharpness of his putting, would have won had his efforts on the green been fruitful of the success he experienced in the earlier days of the tournament. This afternoon he missed many of them, and short ones at that.

FINE PUTTING

With Neville, it was different. Gray-haired old veterans of many tournaments said they had never seen the equal of his putting since Walter J. Travis came to England and won the 1904 championship. On seven greens one putt sufficed for the California champion. He often drove into the rough and was bunkered badly on several occasions, he gave Quintet a terrible scare from which the Bostonian never quite fully recovered until he had chipped dead to the eighteenth hole.

The Quintet-Bretherton match during the afternoon was just a safe distance behind the Willing-Wethered match, so that the two galleries constantly were intermingling, making play difficult. Quintet's fatigue from the morning round was clearly to be seen on his countenance as he went forth for the afternoon round with Bretherton.

On the sixteenth hole Quintet made his finest shot of the day, made his finest shot of the day, made his finest shot of the day.

Jackrabbits Tackle Jeff Squad Today

Long Beach tackles Jefferson in the feature game of the final round of play in the City League ball circuit this afternoon. Both the Jackrabbits and Democrats are undefeated and the winner of today's clash should have a good chance for the city pennant. The game will be played at Jefferson.

Another fast game is expected when the L. A. High and Manual Arts hook up on Wilson Field. The Pioneers showed plenty of class in their first game by defeating Pasadena, 6 to 1, and is expected to trim the Toilers by a close score. However, Coach Sid Foster has a fighting crew and the Manual Arts tossers may upset the dope and the Pioneers' hopes.

In the other two tilts, Lincoln meets the much-battered Franklin High squad on the Killebrew home grounds, while Polytechnic and Pasadena hook up at Housh Field. The fans favor the Bulldogs and Mechanics to finish on top, although the Franklin and Pasadena ninjas are certain to put up tough battles.

FRANK MELLUS IN FRONT WITH RIFLE

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)
DEL MONTE, May 9.—Frank H. Mellus, Los Angeles, took the lead in the California Indians' trapshooting tournament here today by breaking 98 targets out of a possible 100. L. S. Hawhurst, San Francisco, was second, "Tug" Wilson, Modesto, W. C. Lindemann, San Francisco, and Jack Bare, Lodi, tied for third place.

Trophy winners today were:
Class A: W. E. Staunton, San Francisco, first, and W. J. Ellert, Fresno, second. Class B: "Tug" Wilson, Modesto, first and Charles W. Berry, Visalia, second. Class C: Frank Davis, Bakersfield, first and E. J. Randall, Concord, second. Class D: Dr. W. L. Teaby, Del Monte, first and Gus Knight, Highlands, second.

TUNING IN

BY JACK KOFOED

It may be that the A.A.U. is right in its dictum forbidding Charley Paddock, Alton Higgins, Gertrude Ederle and Helen Walworth to compete abroad, but from this angle it looks as though their decision is all wet.

Unsuppression of the individual's rights is never a very pleasant matter—and that is just what the governing body of sport in the United States has done. So long as the athletes live up to the letter and spirit of amateurism it is hard to see where the A.A.U. has a right to dictate where they shall compete.

Fred Rubien, secretary of the American Athletic Union points out that visits to Europe, such as Paddock, has made and the girl swimmers contemplate, kill the keen edge of competition and are likely to keep them off the Olympic team next year.

That's a pale and sickly sort of reason. If the A.A.U. can make decisions on such flimsy pretexts as that they'll soon be forbidding their members to eat rye bread and onions on Thursday afternoons or to speak to ladies wearing red slippers while walking down the north side of Chestnut street.

The association undoubtedly has the good of amateur sport at heart. Bill Muldoon, as chairman of the New York Boxing Commission, has the same tender feeling for the fight game. But both the A.A.U. and B.A. have made some decisions that cause both laughter and tears.

Bay City Will Enter Best of Male Players

Special invitations have been received here by Harvey Snodgrass and Tom Farrand, local tennis cracks, to attend the annual Central California championships at Sacramento, May 25, 26 and 27.

Mrs. Tom Bundy, the former May Sutton, is another of the southern stars being imported to make the trip north.

President Sumner Hardy of the California Lawn Tennis Association has sent word here that he is particularly anxious to see Snodgrass in action at Sacramento. The local tennis phenom, who won national fame by defeating William M. Johnston, is considering an eastern invasion, and it is feared that the Sacramento tournament will be additional experience and practice. The only objection to sending Snodgrass East expressed by tennis officials has been that he is "tournament experience shy."

Snodgrass is keeping in grand condition and is ready to make a great showing at Sacramento before the California tennis powers that be.

Miss Helen Wills, finalist with Molla Mallory last year in the national championship, has definitely entered the Sacramento event. President Hardy has sent word that the entry of Mrs. Tom Bundy will be all the more pleasing to the Sacramento tournament officials.

The northern event has grown in importance annually. William M. Johnston has twice won the Central California title. In his absence this year Snodgrass, Howard and Bob Kinsey, Willis Davis, Roland Robertson, Tom Farrand and Johnny Strachan are conceded to have the best chance of capturing the loving cup.

NEW YORK, May 10.—How many ways are there to kill a cow painlessly?

The American Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals soon will be in a position to answer this question comprehensively. Six hundred inventors have submitted models and drawings to the society's $10,000 prize contest for the best device which will accomplish humane slaughtering of animals for food.

A second prize of $500 was offered for a device to lessen animal suffering in slaughtering animals for the kosher market.

When the contest closed the society found it had so many entries that a special force of workmen had to be employed to unpack and classify the models.

Every known method of dealing painless death is represented in the collection, and a few new ones. Electricity is used in several.

MINE TAX FOUGHT BY COMPANIES

Oatman Concern Lines Up With Jerome Interests in Court Protest

PHOENIX, May 10.—The United Eastern Mining Company of Oatman has joined a suit to those filed by Jerome copper companies against the operation of the mine tax ratings of the Arizona Tax Commission. The Oatman company contends that its valuation is more than $2,000,000 in excess of the real cash value of its property, set at approximately $1,190,000.

For the last year the assessment was $3,544,880.

The suits constitute a serious menace to the income of the State of Arizona. At present, the mines alone contribute about 52 per cent of the State's entire income, this without reference to the stores, banks, railroads and business property that are dependent upon the mining industry.

The system charges the mines not only with their property value, but also upon the basis of the average output of bullion for a six-year period.

It is this feature especially objected to by the mines. It is defended by the State Tax Commission on the basis of the average output of bullion for a six-year period.

The suits in the fight is James S. Douglas, president of the United Verde Extension company of Jerome.

"When That Bank Pays Off On Me"

Say, folks, do you ever recall the messages I wrote you several months back and all the promises I made?

Do you ever check back on my little talks to you during "those first weeks," when I can assure you the going was "pretty heavy for me?" If you ever do, you will notice I promised to make that "Bank pay off," and "what I mean," they are doing it now.

I am making out my dividend checks today for last month's oil run on two producers, namely, No. 1 and Nos. 4 and 5, and the total amount checked out will run in the neighborhood of "$200,000," and when you realize that the total capitalization of these two wells is under $400,000, I'd say, "not so bad."

Also keep in mind that since I wrote you those first messages the price of oil has been cut from $2.35 a barrel to $1.00 a barrel, and production "pinched down to the lowest ebb." But even with all that, your investments with me are bringing you every 30 days bigger profits than any like investment ever before earned you.

"And keep in mind" this, too, that I firmly believe I will be paying you "handsome returns" from these wells ten years from today.

"And keep in mind" this also, that I'm working out a program now whereby I expect to get you six to eight dollars a barrel for the oil that I am now selling at a dollar a barrel.

"For Your Information"

The dividend on Well No. 1 this month will be $42.82 on every hundred invested. This for 30 days' oil run only. The dividend on Well No. 4 and 5 will be $18.14 on every hundred invested and No. 5 is not yet on production.

OIL NEWS

Watch the Orange-Topped Derricks Multiply

Bringing the drill to within a block of the residence district on the west-side of Torrance, where the city restrictions begin, rig builders yesterday began constructing a derrick on the Trimble & Knox tract, the smallest plot in the Torrance field.

The property is owned by H. J. McCardie and is only 50 by 140 feet. It is about a half mile due east of the Hub Oil Company's Smith No. 1, the biggest well of the field. The Torrance field is the largest in the Los Angeles basin and is believed to be a significant one.

The way the field has been improving makes the territory in which his lease is located look very promising. He said that he believed the oil sand would be struck at a shallower depth farther to the east and that the sand would be deeper.

Bergman & Rhoring, who have been instrumental in closing a number of leases in the Torrance district, assert that it may be only a few days until at least five more wells will be under way.

Bell Has Sanded Up
Bell No. 1 well of the Union Oil Company of California—the well, which in October, 1921, started the excitement from which sprung the boom in the Torrance oil field, has sanded up again and is being cleaned out.

The Bell well was not the discovery well of the field, but was the first well in the district to come in with a large production. It has yielded more than 1,200,000 barrels of 20 degree gravity oil since coming in.

A heavy gas pressure which, after nearly two years, has made the well a producer of so much oil brought about the plugging up of the hole. Cleaning operation will put it on production again without in a few days, it is expected.

Sues Oil Company
The Hayward Lumber and Investment Company has brought suit against the Hayward Canyon Oil Company in Superior Court at Ventura for $2515. This is said to represent unpaid royalties on oil produced from a well owned by the latter company.

Baron's Opinion
The laws of supply and demand and the natural competition in the industry has given the public the benefit of exceptionally low prices of gasoline, according to the State Mining Bureau. It says: "Gasoline in California at the present time is the lowest price it has reached in seven years. But the factor that is forcing a reduction in the price of gasoline, namely, over-production of refinable crudes, is drawing in a wasteful way reserves of crude oil and natural gas which properly should be conserved for the future. The necessity of giving the public the benefit of low prices in transportation, storage, and refinery facilities, for the refinable crudes of Southern California, has forced a marked curtailment in production and transportation of low grade crudes in other fields, the principal source of California's fuel oil."

Big Permit in Mexico
Exclusive rights for oil exploitation of 50,000 acres of government land in the San Jose and Carmen districts of the State of Vera Cruz, Mexico, have been granted the Mexican Aguila (Eagle) Oil Company by the Secretary of the Interior and Commerce.

Gets Ventura Tract
A deal has been concluded by the Snowdon Refinery Company, which makes Peacock gasoline, for acreage in the east end of Ventura for the construction of a plant. Ralph Arnold and F. E. Snowdon are among the men identified with the project.

Eagle Rock Interest
Although only one wildcat well has ever been undertaken in the vicinity of Eagle Rock it has continued to hold interest for virtually everyone in the vicinity. During the last few days it has furnished an unusual thrill, because of reports to the effect that it is drilling at about 2855 feet are showing oil and gas.

The well belongs to the Beauty Oil Company, which holds a lease on 300 acres of land at that place, Wells Brought In Two wells were brought in at Santa Fe Springs yesterday morning by the Standard Oil Company. The first is the Walker Community Lease well No. 2, which came in at the rate of 2500 barrels a day of 25.2 gravity oil. The well was drilled to a depth of 4600 feet and is located near Butler and Little Lake roads.

The flow has been cut down to 1500 barrels in accordance with the agreement between oil producers to reduce production. The second well to come in was the South Whittier Community Lease No. 2 well. It began flowing at the rate of 2000 barrels a day when brought in, but was also cut down and it is now producing 1000 barrels a day. The Standard Oil has thirteen wells, other producing or being drilled on this lease. The last well was drilled to a depth of 4720 feet.

Well Breaks Loose Again
The James O. Company's well on the Wardman lease, Santa Fe Springs, broke loose late yesterday night, and before it could be brought under control approximately 5000 barrels of oil had been wasted. The well is near Telegraph and Norwalk Roads, and is 4600 feet deep. It will be deepened and placed on a production basis next week, officials said.

$5,979.15 in Foster Dividends to One Man

The Fosters have paid $5,979.15 in dividends to one investor.

People who are accustomed to think of oil as a speculation—who have never stopped to analyze Foster's oil investment opportunities—who think that Foster issues are no different from the ordinary—little realize that this firm has paid out more than $75,000 dividends to investors! Rich and poor alike—women as well as men—dividends that have gone to every State in the Union—to Canada—to Mexico—and to England.

They little realize that the Foster organization is composed of 700 live, hustling Americans—that they hold a number of drilling records—that they are premier oil dividend payers.

Those who realize these things—those who are receiving Foster dividend checks—are buying Yankee units.

But there are a whole lot of people who do realize these things—who are in the know. And they are the ones who are buying Yankee units—buying them in quantities. They recognize in Yankee the surest and in many respects the greatest opportunity which even the Fosters have originated for maintaining on a greater scale than ever their famous dividend record!

Yankee units are $100 each. They are perpetual interests in two wells whose output, if they do no more than equal their smallest neighbors, will make Yankee units worth many times their present cost.

See to it that you have some Yankee units before they are all bought by investors who are quicker to appreciate a great money-making opportunity than you.

all that they wanted.

Some children favor giving a

Ellison's mother's plan

Because the candy you make

WITNESS TELLS ROYER'S WISHES

Dying Remarks of General Are Given in Will Case

Santa Anns Held for Theft of Oil Well Pipe

Damages Asked for Injuries in Auto Wreck

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)
SANTA ANNA, May 10.—Death statements of the late Gen. J. O. Royer were related in court here today by Attorney Frank M. Wilcox of Los Angeles, testifying for the contestee, in a court battle brought by Mrs. Royer and her son to break the will, which disposed of a $150,000 estate.

Wilcox was called to the Royer home three times to discuss the will before it was finally signed, he said. The first time was at 2 a. m., when Royer was critically ill. When he arrived, however, Royer was feeling better, he said, and it was not until the next day that the will was discussed. In it, it was testified, the general said he wanted Miss Marie Feraud to have a life interest in 75 shares in the Anaheim Investment Company, and that after her death the property was to go to his grandchildren.

ADOPTION SOUGHT
The general told me he purposely left nothing to his son Max or to his daughter, Mrs. Walter Anstus, as he had provided amply for them before his death," Wilcox testified.

On one occasion Royer had sought legally to adopt Miss Feraud, named as chief beneficiary in his will, as a daughter, Wilcox testified, but because she was legally an adult this was impossible.

Miss Feraud would leave the room and go upstairs to cry every time Royer mentioned making a will, according to the testimony of Thomas McGrath, nurse, regarding an asserted bribe offer of $5000, several alibi witnesses were introduced today by the contestee, who said that on the afternoon when the bribe offer was made to have been made they were with Miss Feraud and that she had no telephone conversation during the afternoon.

THEFT CHARGED
Because all available court reporters were busy in other courts and an expert brought from Los Angeles had to be called, the preliminary examination of L. L. Slater and George Putnam was continued to the 12th inst. by Justice J. B. Cox today. Slater and Putnam are charged with theft of $150,000 worth of oil well pipe and joints in Southern California fields.

John and Charles Stoddard, truck drivers of Cypress, testified to hauling pipe from Signal Hill to Huntington Beach, being fired, they said, by Chris Buell of Olive Buell testified in corroboration, saying he did not know who hired him, and Charles Mitchell, detective, who brought about the arrests, had just taken the stand when the noon recess was declared and the case continued.

DAMAGES ASKED
After a car driven by C. R. Siglin had struck his truck, King Mitchell, driver of the truck, testified from his seat and went back to beat up Siglin, according to testimony introduced in Superior Court here today in the $75,000 damage action of Mrs. Myrtle L. Loyd against the car. Mitchell, who is a rancher, was one of those who testified to Mitchell's truck being struck by Siglin. It was the theory of the plaintiffs that Mitchell left his truck before it had stopped and that it then leaped forward, striking the Loyd car, injuring Mrs. Loyd and daughter, Miss Helen Loyd, and inflicting serious and permanent injury to Miss Margaret Loyd, who was in court today on crutches.

Mrs. Loyd testified the car was struck so hard that her daughter and she were driven through the floorboards and it was necessary to cut the boards away to extricate her. She also said that Mitchell ran down the road a few seconds after the crash and exclaimed: "My God, look what I've done."

It was expected the case would continue several days more.

CRIME MYSTERY EASILY SOLVED

Cap. Roberson of Beach City Road Sherlock on Telephone

(By a "Times" Staff Correspondent.)
LONG BEACH, May 10.—For several days police of Los Angeles Harbor were racking their brains for a solution of the "murder" mystery of Wilmington Channel. A heavy body, encased in a gunny sack, had been thrown into the channel. Witnesses saw that. Then blood showed on the surface of the water at the spot where the body had been thrown in. There was everything to make a first-class case for Sherlock Holmes.

Without leaving his office at police headquarters, Capt. Roberson cleared the mystery by two telephone calls.

"Ha, ha, I thought so!" he said in his best Sherlockian voice. The solution is simple. A furrier, after removing the skin from a seal, threw the carcass into the channel."

SCIENCE OR LOVE? PLAY TO ANSWER

Unique Motive Underlies Drama to be Produced by Pasadena Students

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent
PASADENA, May 10.—Will science or love prove to be the final means of settling the problems of mankind?

This pertinent question will be answered Friday and Saturday nights by the Caltech musical comedy to be presented at the Pasadena High School Auditorium.

Harold Sheffield and Loren Blakely, students of the California Institute, will play the leading feminine roles. Their charms, said to be considerable, will be pitted against the unscrupulous machinations of an Oriental sneak.

The secret of the atom, possessed by an American professor, is the basis of the plot. A song and dance, with scenes from England to the Nile, are required to develop the story.

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent
LONG BEACH, May 10.—Plans to dredge Long Beach Harbor to twenty-five feet depth within six months and an additional five feet within eighteen months there, were approved today by the City Council, and bids for the work will be opened next week.

The Council figures that 50 percent of the shipping that now enters Los Angeles Harbor can be accommodated with a twenty-five-foot channel at Long Beach, and the improvements are expected to increase greatly the amount of shipping here. The connecting channel with Los Angeles Harbor is now only twenty-one feet deep.

There will be a 200-foot channel from the harbor entrance to the turning basin and the entrance to Channel No. 2, and a 150-foot channel on the south side of the harbor to the municipal docks.

Slips Nos. 4 and 5 will be dredged to their full width, and the Craig Shipbuilding Company, which owns the slips, will make available to coastwise shipping about 3100 feet of wharfage owned by Long Beach, which will accommodate four or five 500-foot vessels at a time and a larger number of smaller craft.

Riverside Jail Overhauling Is Jury's Demand

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)
RIVERSIDE, May 10.—Extensive improvements in the County Jail and the installation of a modern fingerprint system in the Sheriff's office were recommended yesterday in the report of the Riverside county grand jury, which was submitted to Superior Judge W. H. Rose and George Freeman, County Clerk.

The jury, after giving Sheriff Sam Ryan praise for the manner in which he has handled the jail, pointed out that the banks in the jail "tank" are infested with pests; that there is a lack of ventilation; that the women's quarters; that the exterior of the jail is without sufficient light for proper night protection; that apertures at the windows where the screens fit in are so large as to permit articles being passed in to prisoners.

Recommendations cover the laundry for all these conditions.

Both Mrs. Sheller and her husband, who was with her at the time, are unlicensed drivers, according to their own admissions.

The jury was taken to Loma Linda station, where Mrs. Sheller is recovering from injuries received.

The attack upon the two negroes was the culmination, it is said, of long-standing racial differences at the beach suburb, and the burning of the house is the second assault upon a white woman in the last month.

Groin, Victory Believed Won by Santa Monica at Sacramento Hearing

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

Carter, Commissioner of Public Works, who with City Attorneys Weber and Coffin is in Sacramento at a hearing which is being conducted by Atty.-Gen. U. S. Webb.

The communication in part read: "The Attorney-General stated that he should now act in the matter and in case of any future development, the city will be afforded a further opportunity to be protected in its rights."

The conference in Sacramento was brought about by the action taken by the Home Protective Association, members of which body declare that all accretions artificially formed by the groins is public property and that the construction of such groins is illegal.

The statement of the Attorney-General is considered as meaning that the city's position is a sufficient pier of the Bay District has been removed.

There are 3233 names in the 1933 directory and the population estimate is based on the system of multiplying the number of names listed by two and a quarter in order to allow for the women and children not included in the directory.

The 1920 Federal census figures showed a population of 9296 and the directory of last year indicated a population of 14,769. The population has therefore more than doubled in the last three years.

County Expects to Purchase

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)
IMPERIAL, May 10.—Cited on a charge of keeping her children out of school needlessly and refusing to send them to school, a woman was required by law Mrs. Joseph B. Engle took occasion to express her defiance of the State when called before Police Judge Everett H. Bowen, and when he more, she got away with it.

Judge Bowen fined her $10 for the offense and then when she declared that she had no money to pay for fines, he asked $5 bail. This, she said, was worse than a fine and in plain language told the judge her perfectly frank opinions on various phases of the State law.

Her trade did not stop until Judge Bowen gave in. The final outcome was a warning for her to send her children to school regularly unless they had good reason to be excused and her fine was suspended.

Sixteen Canines Come Before Sierra Madre Trustees; Lung Specialist's Pets Stir Protest

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.)
SIERRA MADRE, May 10.—Sixteen howling dogs proved to be the principal subject of discussion at a meeting of the City Trustees last evening and to quiet the protests of thirty-two angry residents who complained that the dogs would not allow any sleep or peace in the neighborhood, the board passed an ordinance prohibiting the keeping of more than two dogs on a lot.

The dogs in question belong to Dr. F. P. Miller, well-known lung specialist, who keeps the animals as a hobby. When the question was first brought up several weeks ago, Dr. Miller defended his dogs and declared they seldom barked.

It's Always in the Last Pocket

By J. H. Striebel

Sweet girl of my heart: - Yesterday I saw you again and I wanted to speak to you, but dared not.
Bartling, hence you interest my life
I am brimful of happiness. I want to sing, dance about not to the world what a glorious place this is since I have discovered an angel walking in our midst.

Golden girl, how I yearn for you. With you at my side I could defy the world, so great is the love
I bear you. It is a love that passeth understanding. A love that cometh once; a love that never dies, but liveth until the end of time.

I sometimes wonder how I shall aspire to love a wondrous girl like you, but I am helpless. My only hope and prayer is that you will understand and forgive a poor love-sick boy who worships who adores, who idolizes the very ground you walk on.

Your very presence is to me like a single flower offered to a crippled child who sines for a whole garden of such blooms. Oh dainty fragrant flower, soft petals of a rose exquisite blossom. I wish that you could bloom for me alone.

Adieu, till to-morrow my darling. With all my love and devotion, I am

Forever and ever

FLORAL CENTER HERE SEEN

Visitors at Exposition Park Shown Rare Plants Can be Grown in Southland

That Los Angeles and adjacent towns and cities may become the center of one of the greatest floral industries in the world was a secret released with proof yesterday to more than 100 horticulturists and members of various organizations engaged in the business. The tour of exhibits in Exposition Park and to various nurseries close to Los Angeles.

One of the principal hitherto unknown facts released by O. W. Howard, manager of the sunken garden committee of the State Association of Nurseriesmen, is that beautiful and rare flowers, many of them formerly raised only in certain parts of Europe, flourish in Southern California.

Experiments now being carried out by Mr. Howard at his experimental farm, River near Montebello, prove conclusively, according to him, and also Roy Wilcox of the Wilcox Nursery in Montebello, that a new industry of tremendous financial importance is about to be launched in this part of the State. These flowers, consisting of many exquisite and rare specimens, have formerly been imported at great expense.

RARE PLANT GROWN
One flower in particular which is seldom seen in this country and which has been raised mainly in Holland and Belgium, now being seen here also proved to be successfully grown here. It is expected that many varieties of these flowers will be put on the market soon, together with several varieties of roses.

Men who are prime movers in the world of flowers and nursery plants in California yesterday that they literally were having their eyes opened to the possibilities of this part of the State in regard to horticultural activities.

Among those who attended were officers and members of the Pasadena Horticultural Society, State Association of Nurseriesmen, Los Angeles Florists and Nurseriesmen's Club, sunken garden committee of the State Association, Park Commissioners of Los Angeles and park foreman and H. R. Richards, western representative of the Florists Exchange, the leading horticultural publication of America, published in New York.

The tour started yesterday morning with a visit to the sunken garden at Exposition Park. An inspection of the plants, which were in the process of being brought to the State, was made through the trial grounds of the same people, where numerous rare and beautiful new flowers are being tried out before being placed on the market.

Every official and authority present agreed that the trip was a revelation and would undoubtedly crystallize in something or perhaps a change of importance to the horticultural industry.

Arriving, police discovered that the mob was in pursuit of Armada, who was suspected of taking a gold watch and $50 from the pocket of Darrio Lago of 225 Sunset boulevard. The victim led the pursuit.

Armada finally was captured by Police Officer G. C. Cook and taken to headquarters. While he was being booked by Detective Lieutenant O'Connor and Officer Cook, he asked to get a drink of water in the next room.

Permission being granted, he used the opportunity to attempt to escape. He dashed out on First street with twenty detectives hot on his heels. The suspects were taken through the police garage, and started up the hill. Officer Cook was in the lead.

The fugitive speeding up the hill ran straight into the arms of Officer O'Connor, who was on duty. The patrolman gathered him in, and brought him back to headquarters, where he was booked on a charge of robbery.

John R. Gaunt, postmaster at Reserve, N. M., and cashier of the bank at that place, was arrested yesterday by postoffice inspectors, charged with embezzling postoffice funds. He was then arraigned before United States Commissioner Long and the bond was fixed at $25,000.

The hearing will be conducted on the 22nd inst. John R. Gaunt came to this city in an effort to make good on what he is asserted he embezzled from the Reserve postoffice. The amount has been estimated at $22,000.

The government also says the bank with which Gaunt was connected was in bad financial condition and that Gaunt used the funds of the postoffice to place the institution on its feet.

Two asserted bandit queens, Martha Beckman and Delpha Ament, were taken to San Quentin several days ahead of schedule last night, after intercepted notes indicated that the two were plotting to escape jail.

The notes, addressed to men in the tanks at the City Jail, were found by jailers yesterday and were reported to contain an appeal for help. The plan is said to have been for the girls to break away from their guards at the railway station.

The two were sentenced several days ago to from one to ten years in San Quentin, after they had pleaded guilty to a charge of grand larceny. The State was prepared to permit them to plead guilty to the lesser charge.

PIONEER "BLIND MAN" MOVES HIS LOCATION
E. H. Elkeles, the "blind man" who conducts a business in window shades, rugs and linoleum, has moved his place of business from 109 West Ninth street to 344 South Broadway. Since his business was established thirty-two years ago, Mr. Elkeles has succeeded in building the largest retail window-shade factory in the West, it is said.

RACE WITH TRAIN HAS FATAL END

Contractor is Instantly Killed as Electric Car Demolishes Auto

A second too late in his judgment and the life of James Hudson, painting contractor of 1844 Shatto street, was snuffed out yesterday morning when a Pacific electric car on the Airline boulevard street car track and Los Angeles crashed broadside into his light touring car at the intersection of the car tracks and Wilshire boulevard.

Hudson was alone in the car and was apparently making his way from a painting job near by back to his hardware and paint store at 7454 Santa Monica boulevard, Fifth avenue, who was in charge of the car.
